

Cumbria SEND Information, Advice and Support Service

Offering impartial information, advice and support to children and young people (0-25 years) with special educational needs and/or disabilities (SEND) and their parents and carers.

Your local SEND IAS Service Co-ordinator will listen to your concerns and can offer:

- Appropriate support, impartial information and advice;
- To arrange a confidential meeting with you and support you at meetings;
- Detailed explanations of how the Special Educational Needs (SEN) process should work;
- Information about local and national voluntary organisations;
- Information about young peoples and parents support groups in your area;
- To support you through the Education, Health and Care Plan (EHCP) Process and annual reviews;
- The chance to meet other people with similar needs, or the chance to meet other parents who have children with similar needs;
- To help you learn more about the SEND Code of Practice.

For self-referral, please contact your local co-ordinator:

A child or young person may have learning difficulties caused by:

- A physical disability;
