What's been happening this week:

- Well done to everyone who brought any of the items for the Poppy Appeal—we raised an incredible £198.88.
- The songs for the Nativity are on the website, so get practicing everyone!
- Plastic pollution has been an important school topic recently, with class projects, homework and an amazing assembly! We are holding a fund raising bake sale as well.
- Some of the children attended a Badminton Festival at St Benedict's this week
- Check out some of the other galleries including Pop Art by Class 6 and maths—dividing by 10! Check out your child's class page here

Important Notices:

- Tuesday 3rd December will be American Food Day —anyone who normally has a pack lunch please let the office know your child would like a school dinner - Menu will include hot dogs, burgers (plain, cheese & veggie) fries and doughnuts for pudding!
- Please can all juniors play respectfully and safely when on any of the equipment at the infants school, there have been complaints about our behaviour — we should always be following the St James' Way!
- The Infants school are holding a Christmas Fayre on Friday 29th November.
- Just a reminder that when children have been left in the yard in the morning unsupervised, they must remain on site and should not leave to pet passing dogs, go meet friends or any other reason.
- Copies of all school letters sent out this term and this week's homework
