What's been happening this week:

- Remember the five D's of dodgeball, dodge, duck, dip, dive and dodge! Some of our Year 5 & 6 pupils attended a fun Dodgeball festival this week.
- We hope parents really enjoyed our drop in morning looking at VIPERS.
- We all celebrated Chinese New Year this week with a Chinese inspired school lunch menu.
- Well done to the children who attended the LEGO competition at Lakes college.
- Mrs Brown's Textiles club is increasingly popular and they are doing a fantastic job working with textiles and sewing machines.
- Check out some of the other galleries showing the children learning and exploring a range of different topics. Check out your child's class page here.

Important Notices:

- We have had several reports of headlice this week. We appreciate that they can be difficult to treat, and a recurrent problem, but please ensure your children are checked and treated so they are not spreading amongst their classmates and feeling uncomfortable and itchy themselves. (NHS guidance on headlice)
- Can all children who take Guitars in Year 3 or 4, who are at Senhouse on Thursday 6th (Whole of Class 2 and Year 4's from Class 6) please bring their Guitars on Monday and they will have their lesson then instead.
- If any Year 6 have not yet paid for their SATs books please can payment be made at the office.
- Copies of all school letters sent out this term and this week's homework
